Sandy Springs High School
Sandy Springs, Georgia

As a jet leaves a vapor trail, a year leaves a memory. As these misty paths fade, memories also become dim. Vapor trails, created in the idealistic height of our youth, gain in magnitude and intensity when remembered. In the 1961 CONCOLOR, we, the annual staff, have endeavored, in pictures and words, to preserve these vapor trails forever.

Dear Seniors,

Just as vapor trails show where a plane has been and where it is headed, your record with us does the same.

By these tokens, the faculty and I have no major fears for you. As we have been concerned with the best for you, we will be concerned with the best from you. The reputation of Sandy Springs High lies in your hands.

We wish success and happiness for all of you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Edward G. Zachert".

IN APPRECIATION TO

Mr. Zacher for his attitude and time spent toward the success of the yearbook staff.

The faculty for its cooperation in allowing students to work on the yearbook.

Mr. Zacher for his cooperation with the staff to make the year book possible.

Mrs. Baader for her help in working out a theme for the CON-
COLOR and for her helpful suggestions.

Mrs. Howell for being patient with the staff as it monopolized the conference room in the library.

Hewitt Studios for the excellent pictures that were made.

Mr. Al Rasche for his guidance and helpful suggestions in making up the yearbook.
